- At a recent meeting of the Buddhist Association, one of a series of seven sponsored by the newspaper Prachatipatai, the subject "The Peril to Buddhism" was discussed. One of the questions asked Sujivo Bhikku was, ""hy don't Buddhist priests follow the example of industriousness exhibited by foreign missionaries in Thailand?." In his reply, Sujivo insinuated that the energy displayed by foreign missionaries might be attributed to the ulterior motive of espionare.

3. Recently, Admiral Taharn Khamiran was approaced by one Prasort (Prachit) (fnu), allegedly a representative of Free That elements, who stated that Taharn could depend on the support of India and Burma if Taharn were able to overthrow the present That Government. Prasent brought the Secretary of the Burmese Embassy to Taharn's house, presumably to lend credence to his claims.
